

EDUCATION

The Master of Education is designed for teachers and school leaders wishing to pursue postgraduate study in Education.

The Master of Education (MEd) course gives particular focus to the role of the Christian teacher/administrator in enhancing moral and faith development within a context of Christian education. The MEd is offered as either a coursework degree or a combination of coursework and project or minor thesis.

Students enrolled in the MEd can choose to exit with a Graduate Certificate in Educational Studies after successful completion of four units.

- Specialisations:
- | Educational Administration
 - | Religious Education
 - | Curriculum and Teaching Studies
 - | Special Education
 - | Education Wellbeing

Accreditation

The Master of Education course is accredited under Avondale's self-accrediting authority, within the terms of the Australian Qualifications Framework, and is nationally registered with the Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency (TEQSA). In 2014 Avondale was granted self-accrediting status by TEQSA.
